

I really enjoy K-love and believe it is a great resource to the community. We would sorely miss this great station if it lost its frequency to another. We need this positive , family-valued station to continue in their area.I have no problems or concerns of what is played or said on the radio as I do when I listen to many others in the area. Please preserve this station.